Statement of Philosophy

The Nursing Assistant has one of the most important roles in a care facility. Each resident in a facility is cared for by a health care team. The Nursing Assistant is a member of this care team and is one who provides the most hands-on care to the residents. As result of this, the Nursing Assistant has great influence on the resident's sense of well-being as well as the resident's physical health. The Nursing Assistant is the most important link between the resident and the facility.

The role of the Nursing Assistant can be broken down into the four specific areas:

1. Providing a safe environment for the residents. Using facility equipment (such as a wheelchair) in a safe manner, knowing and following the proper use of protective devices such as restraints and side rails; Being aware of potential hazards such as liquid spills an obstruction; and practicing personal hygiene, cleanliness and infection control.
2. Meeting the residents' physical needs. This includes assisting with all the activities of daily living, such as bathing, oral hygiene, grooming, dressing, toileting, feeding, as well as medical and rehabilitative activities (vital signs, turning, collecting specimens, exercises, range of motion, and ambulation). It is important to note here that the Nursing Assisting is to encourage the residents to be as independent as possible.
3. Meeting the residents' psychosocial needs. This requires skills and sensitivity to understand these needs in individual residents and to meet them, such as (1) To be recognized as an individual; (2) To love and be loved; (3) To feel a sense of accomplishment; (4) To be treated with dignity and respect; (5) To feel secure; (6) To feel good about them. The Nursing Assistant should treat the resident the same way he/she wants to be treated.
4. Fulfilling responsibilities to the employer. Reporting to work on time and reliability fulfilling his/her assignments, conserving supplies and equipment, are among the responsibilities of a Nursing Assistant.

STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

It is a state requirement that a student who pays his/her tuition is not required to pay a state-imposed assessment for the STRF.

Purpose and Operation of the STRF and Requirements for Filing Against the STRF

(a) A qualifying institution shall include the following statement on both its enrollment agreement and school catalog:

“The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF, and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

(b) In addition to the statement required under subdivision (a) of this section, a qualifying institution shall include the following statement in its school catalog:

“It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833, (916) 431-6959 or (888) 370-7589.

To be eligible for STRF, you must be a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid or deemed to have paid the STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss because of any of the following:

1. The institution, the location of the institution, or an educational program offered by the institution was closed or discontinued, and you did not choose to participate in a teach-out plan approved by the Bureau or did not complete a chosen teach-out plan approved by the Bureau.
2. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution within the 120-day period before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, or were enrolled in an educational program within the 120-day period before the program was discontinued.

3. You were enrolled at an institution or a location of the institution more than 120 days before the closure of the institution or location of the institution, in an educational program offered by the institution as to which the Bureau determined there was a significant decline in the quality or value of the program more than 120 days before closure.
4. The institution has been ordered to pay a refund by the Bureau but has failed to do so.
5. The institution has failed to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federal student loan program as required by law or has failed to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the institution more than tuition and other costs.
6. You have been awarded restitution, a refund, or other monetary award by an arbitrator or court, based on a violation of this chapter by an institution or representative of an institution, but have been unable to collect the award from the institution.
7. You sought legal counsel that resulted in the cancellation of one or more of your student loans and have an invoice for services rendered and evidence of the cancellation of the student loan or loans.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, the application must be received within four (4) years from the date of the action or event that made the student eligible for recovery from STRF.

A student whose loan is revived by a loan holder or debt collector after a period of noncollecting may, at any time, file a written application for recovery from STRF for the debt that would have otherwise been eligible for recovery. If it has been more than four (4) years since the action or event that made the student eligible, the student must have filed a written application for recovery within the original four (4) year period, unless the period has been extended by another act of law.

However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.
